E-Learning International Conference 2024

Thursday, 11 July 2024 - Friday, 12 July 2024

General Administration

Sub-Themes

Pedagogical Innovations in Cross-Disciplinary E-Learning

Embracing cutting-edge methods to enhance online learning experiences and instructional design.

Technology Integration in Education

Exploring the seamless integration of digital tools and technologies across diverse academic disciplines.

Emerging Trends in Multidisciplinary Online teaching and Learning Environments

Anticipating and discussing emerging trends, technologies, and methodologies shaping the future of e-learning across disciplines

Excellent Assessment Strategies for Cross-Discipline E-Learning

Examining effective methods for assessing learning outcomes and evaluating the success of e-learning initiatives in diverse disciplinary contexts.

Inclusive E-learning Practices

Focusing on strategies and initiatives that foster inclusivity, ensuring that digital pathways are accessible to learners of all abilities, backgrounds, and learning styles.

Research and Supervision

Using and incorporating e-learning platforms and tools in research and supervision.

Policy and Regulatory Standards E-learning

Discussing the development and implementation of policies and standards that promote excellence in e-learning.

Strategic Leadership and Management in Promoting E-Learning Excellence

Exploring the use of digital platforms and tools in administration in educational institutions.

Industry and Digitalization

Focusing on the use of e-technologies and digital tools in the industry.

Student-Led Innovations in E-learning

Encouraging students to showcase their creative approaches, experiences, and perspectives in shaping the future of digital learning across various disciplines.

Teacher Professional Development

Addressing the importance of training educators to create and implement inclusive digital learning strategies in their respective disciplines.

Digital Advancements in Health Education

Exploring the transformative role of e-learning in the health sector, focusing on innovative approaches, technologies, and strategies for enhancing healthcare education and training.